

Town of Wellington Colorado A Wonderful Place to Grow

The Town of Wellington Colorado, incorporated in 1905, has its roots in agriculture and the railroad and has retained its delightful historic small town atmosphere. Community events bring residents together to enjoy school programs, parades, good food, classic cars and fireworks. Wellington is situated in the rolling high plains of Colorado with a gorgeous backdrop of the Colorado Rocky Mountains. Wellington is within easy access to the heart of the Rocky Mountains with excellent opportunities for skiing, hiking, bicycling, fishing, hunting, bird watching, and other family outings. Colorado State University, numerous excellent restaurants and cultural activities are close at hand. Wellington is adjacent to a major interstate highway (I-25) that provides convenient north access to Cheyenne, Wyoming and south access to Fort Collins, Loveland and Denver. Unique shops and services are available in Wellington and more shopping opportunities are being added. Major shopping mall opportunities are within minutes from Wellington in the surrounding communities. Excellent quality and economically priced homes are available in Wellington along with a top rated school system.

SCHOOLS IN THE WELLINGTON AREA

Education continues to be one of the reasons why Wellington is one of the leading communities in the Midwest in attracting new families. Education is the key and certainly a top priority in the Wellington community. Community involvement in the schools is unsurpassed. The Wellington Area is part of the larger Poudre R-1 School District.

Both of Wellington's ultra-modern schools are among the top in the district for student performance in academics and sports.

Poudre School District
Eyestone Elementary
Wellington Junior High

Colleges

Colorado State University
Fort Range Community College
University of Northern Colorado
Regis University University of Colorado
University of Denver School of Mines

WELLINGTON AREA ATTRACTIONS

Wellington, Colorado is an outdoor enthusiast's dream. Residents and tourists alike enjoy world-class trout fishing, pristine golf courses and miles of mountain biking, snowmobiling, cross-country skiing and hiking trails.

The area boasts just about every activity you could want including beautiful parks with ball fields, tennis courts, pools, horseshoes and picnic areas; great museums and art galleries, an amateur theatre, bowling alleys, movie theatres and so much more.